Matthew 21 : 28 - 32

Do what you say, say what you do is the common sense of human reasoning and responsibility. Once people do not live by their word, all trust with them vanishes. The same is true with spirituality. I love you, I forgive you, I serve you, I am honest with you, or it is just cheap words living a delusional life.

Pope Francis Do not place time with cynical people who cultivate no hope in life.

Hurricane Harvey claimed 63 lives. Katrina took 1,830 lives. Harvey dumped more rain than any other hurricane. 33 trillion gallons of rain, 49.2" in Houston in 5 days. Katrina produced 17" and Sandy 7". Damage is monumental.

Catholic Charities is bringing money and emergency to the area. San Antonio is the staging place for supplies. The Red Cross will eventually move on but Catholic Charities remains in the years to come as the complex and costly restoration begins.

DACA: The Conference of U.S. Catholic Bishops supports the hopes of DACA. They are good members of society. They are educated, earned degrees, served in military, pay taxes, contribute to society. The Church loves them and will continue to support them.

Did you know U.S. drivers spend on average 17,600 minutes behind the wheel each year.

By the Percent Should Confederate monuments be removed from public spaces?

Yes	.... 62%	Their presence is racist
Yes	..... 23%	They make a statement of white supremacy
No	..... 10%	Removing statues erases our history
No	..... 6%	Move them to museums
