Matthew 22 : 34 - 40

This is the core of our religion, to love God with all our heart, our mind and soul, and to love our neighbors as ourselves. Everything else is just a commentary, a spelling out of the implication of these commands. It makes no sense to say I am a religious person and display no love to our brothers and sisters.

Pope Francis The Church is mother and her motherly attention is expressed with special tenderness to those who are obliged to flee their own country. Urgent action, but also and above all, Christian love.

Catholic Questions

Why can't a priest get married? There is nothing in the deposit of faith that prohibits priests from being married. There is a long standing practice in the Roman Catholic Church that celibacy is required of men who choose the priesthood. In the Eastern churches, marriage is allowed but to be a bishop, celibacy is required. The Church sees celibacy as a sign of the priest's consecration to the Lord, where he gives of himself entirely to God and the Church. Christ himself never married. Once ordained, marriage is not possible for the priest without permission from the Holy See.

Did you know The Archdiocese of Milan is Europe's largest diocese.
