John 15 : 9 - 17

The Trinity is a relationship of love. It is the base of their existence, the root of their being. They are constantly in a motion of loving all creation and all that is to be loved. It is the reasons why we say God is love and the source of all love is to be found in God. Nothing would exist only for God's love, not creation, not the universe, not you and me.

Pope Francis The message of Easter is Jesus lives and so because he lives so does hope, so does love, so does mercy, and so do we as witnesses.

Family & Religion (Part 1)

Many Catholic Families struggle to make religious experiences a part of home life as if church is where we only talk about God. A survey stated only 17% of Catholic pray together. We are not making religious moments a part of home life. Sports yes, daily events yes, news yes, vacations yes, music yes, but faith not as much. Here are some ways the family can bring back faith into home life.

1. Why not one decade of the rosary each night prayed before bedtime led by a son or daughter. Five days means a Rosary has been prayed during the week (2 days free). This is putting faith into practice.
