Pope Francis We are not machines.

We are human beings, with human needs to attend to that machines do not have.

The Role of Sports in Catholic Schools [Part 2]

Coaches can be some of the most influential people in high school teen lives. Practices, hard work, team experiences are good learning lessons for life. Good sportsmanship in winning and losing. Sports is essential to staying healthy. Catholic schools and universities, a player will lose his place on the team if he has disciplinary issues. A lesson in life of responsibilities ignored. But not tolerated.

Mark 4 : 26 - 34

The style of teaching Jesus had was stories or parables. It says here he would not teach without stories. That's how important a tool of instruction it was for him. He used the stories of life, nature happening before their eyes to explain spiritual truths. Today's Gospel is a typical example.
