Racism (Part 1 of 2)

Racism is a terrible scar on a human mind and a sin against love thy neighbor. Racism is a poison of the soul, an illness of the heart. On any given Sunday, many cultures attend Mass and we are certainly not preaching hate or one culture is superior to another. We are all in this world together and should work towards the common ground.

Church A study reported 3 categories why Catholics abandon the Church.

1. Injured. People who leave because of hurtful experience, illness, divorce and death.
2. Drifters. People who leave thinking the Church is fallen with meaningless rules, rituals, that have little bearing in life.
3. Dissenters. People who struggle to reconcile Church teachings, especially sex and gender issues.

They depart and no longer make Church a way of life.
