Mark 12 : 38 - 44

I cannot fathom how any institution, charitable institution, in particular religious institutions would allow a poor person no matter how well intentioned to give away all she has and leave her in poverty. I guess it happens especially with inheritances. Christ never once asked his disciples this is what you must give in order to carry my name. He left it up to each person's moral conscience as to the amount of sharing individuals wish to give.

Pope Francis

We should leave this earth in better condition than we found it, or at least as good as we found it.

Martyred Oscar Romero (Part 3 of 3)

The final straw for the government when Romero pleaded with the military to refuse military orders that break God's laws, killing their own people. The next day while celebrating Mass, a sniper shot him through the heart. His assassin has never been apprehended. One of his miracles, a 35-year-old El Salvador woman slipped into a coma after giving birth. She miraculously recovered after her husband prayed to him for a miracle. Archbishop Romero canonized a saint, October 14, 2018 at the Vatican.
