John 2 : 1 - 11

Running out of wine at a wedding people would think the groom as a buffoon. Can he do anything right? Remember the Cana countryside is filled with vineyards. Why does Jesus even have to perform a miracle. Let the groom leave the party and gather up more wine which surrounds his home. There are no answers to such questions. Because even the question itself is inexplicable unless a possibility and it is possible and would solve the inexplicable, the groom is drunk.
