John 8 : 1 – 11

What a crime that was in the ancient world punishable by death. Adultery meaning the man is married or maybe she is married, or both. The sin of adultery is someone is infringing on the marital rights of a married person, and therefore endangers the union of their marital relationship which is based on trust and fidelity.

PARISH ASSESSMENT MEETINGS

With the representatives from the Archdiocese last Wednesday.
Thank you to all who came. Feedbacks were documented.

Pope Francis

Good always overcomes evil. Evil's days are numbered when in the face of goodness.

9th Council of the Church

Constantinople 869 AD. Two individuals claimed the position of Patriarch of Constantinople. Pope Nicholas sided with one. He was then excommunicated by the other, including some western beliefs. The emperor Basil called a council to sort out the true Patriarch. Photius was elected as Patriarch of Constantinople. Ignatius for a while attempted to overrule the decision but it went nowhere. Hard feelings remained for decades afterwards.

"Unplanned", a major motion movie is now screening in April at your theaters. A story about Abby Johnson, manager of Planned Parenthood abortion clinic who recognized the evil (culture of death) she participated in and today is a strong advocate of Pro-life. This is her story.
