John 21 : 1 - 19

Two exact events occur in Jesus and Peter's lives. One is at the beginning the call of Peter to follow Jesus. Jesus tells Peter drop your nets who had caught nothing all day, and the haul brought in many fish. Now at the end, practically Jesus farewell to Peter, he does the same thing again. He requests Peter go back out and drop your nets once again and a large haul of fish was brought aboard.

Pope Francis.

Forgiveness leads to reconciliation which in turn leads us to peace.

12th Council Lateran III (1179)

The election was called to decide with clarity how the Pope is elected. The decision was the College of Cardinals elect the Pope and there must be a 2/3 majority to elect the Pope. Never has a Pope been elected at the first gathering to elect. Usually 3rd to 5th gathering when election is confirmed.

St. Peter's Basilica

Once a year St. Veronica's veil is exposed to the public at St. Peter's.

A tradition dating back to the 8th century.
