Pope Francis

We need creative evangelizers today to touch hardened souls.

17th Council of Constance 1414

Catholics had 2 Popes: One living in Rome, the other in Avignon, France. The Holy See relocated to Avignon, France for 70 years. Each pope set up their papacy, selected bishops and cardinals. Pope Urban VI and Pope Clement VII. This Council deposed the two Popes and elected Pope Martin V. Also decided at this council, Popes are not subject to council's decisions; Councils are subject to the Pope. (End of matter.)
