FAITH & SERVICE

Faith is a gracious gift from God. It can neither be earned nor bought; only responded to with works of love – service.

A vibrant faith can make us strong, loving, and wise, confident that God – the Rock of our salvation – will guard us from all harm.

See how wonderful if a person has faith in God. If you have faith, you can do everything even hardest thing. If you have faith, then you can do marvelous works. “If you have faith, only the size of a mustard seed, you would say to this mulberry tree, ‘be uprooted and planted in the sea,’ and it would obey you.”

The person with faith is inspired to love tenderly, to give generously, to do all good works, and to walk always in the presence of God.

Faith gives us the realization that all things we have are the gifts from God. Our time, our talents, our treasures are all gifts from God. God entrusts these gifts to us so that we can use them to serve God and and serve one another. This understanding will help us to give generously and to serve God and serve the community with love, with kindness, and with humility.
