MEANING OF LIFE & DEATH FOR US

The celebrations of All Saints Day and All Souls Day in November help us reflecting on some key events of our life such as life & death. Today's readings help us to find more meaning of our life as Christians.

We believe that Jesus lived among us, died, and rose from the dead. We believe in the resurrection. That is what we celebrate every Sunday when we come around the Lord's table.

We will have life after death. We believe in more now, and more after death. We believe that life is good and when we die it is great.

In today's gospel we hear the Sadducees asking Jesus about what happen when we die? Jesus' answers to the Sadducees open our eyes of faith to see more life after death. We are the children of God – the God of the living, not of the dead. Jesus explained that the afterlife would be so real, not just an eternal replay of this life.

Things will be different after we die. Normal human relations, including marriage, will be transformed. Jesus tells the Sadducees (who denied angels and spirits) that those whom God considers worthy of the resurrection and heavenly life are immortal – like the angels; and therefore, they are “children of God.”

Now, the questions for us are: How do we live as people who believe in the resurrection? How do we live differently as Christians? We can assure ourselves and help others to see the beauty of life God has given us, even after death, so we can firmly believe that life is good and when we die it is really great.
